

Summary of suggested changes for the Aerospace Technology (secondary level) framework.

General:

1. There were no general changes.

Specific:

1. A section has been added at the end of the performance standards that provides website references and distance learning courses offered for this program.